

WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Legal Profession Uniform Law WA (Uniform Law)

Part 3.2

Notice of termination of legal services by a Law Practice in Western Australia

You are required to complete this form if you are a law practice other than an incorporated legal practice (ILP) or an unincorporated legal practice (ULP) and intend to cease engaging in legal practice. If you are an ILP or an ULP please see the 'Notice of termination of legal services' forms for those practices, namely the Form 9A for ILPs or Form 9C for ULPs.

Please note that this form applies to law practices only. Individual legal practitioners within a law practice must notify the Legal Practice Board separately of their intent to cease legal practice.

Section A – Details of Law Practice

1	Type of Law Practice:	<input type="checkbox"/> Sole Practitioner. <input type="checkbox"/> Law firm. <input type="checkbox"/> Community Legal Service (CLS).
2	Name of the Law Practice:	_____
3	Australian Business Number:	_____
4	Street address:	_____ _____
5	Postal address (if different):	_____ _____
6	Telephone number: (include STD code)	() _____
7	Email address:	_____

Section D – Instructions to complete this form

23 Please ensure that you have completed all sections of this form and if you are closing a trust account attach:

- Notification of Closure of Trust Account/Law Practice Closing Down.

Section E – Certification

This must be signed by a Principal of the former Law Practice

I certify that:

- The information set out in this form is true and correct and I have not omitted any relevant information; and
- The Law Practice has complied with rule 78(6) of the Legal Profession Uniform General Rules 2015 in relation to the provision of ongoing professional indemnity insurance cover.

Signed:

Full name:

(printed)

Date:
