

Steps for Practitioners to view CPD points online

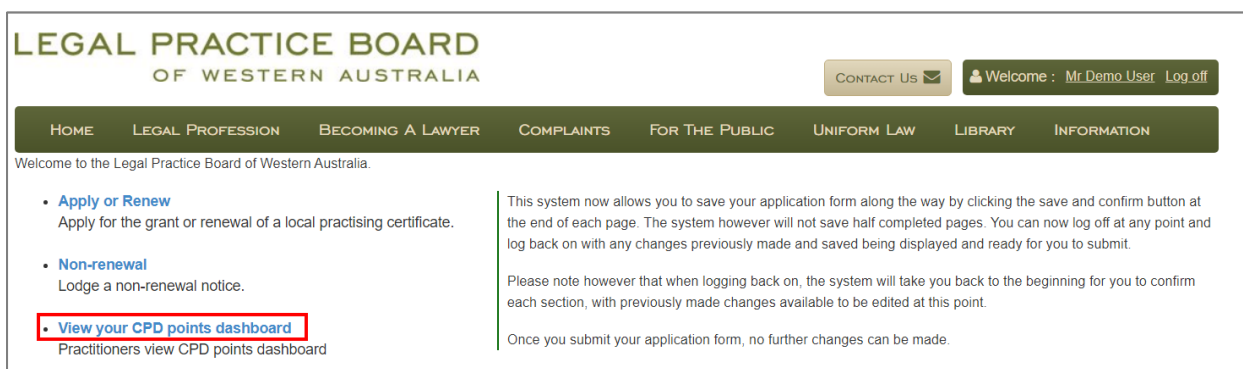

1. Ensure that you are on the homepage of the LPBWA website: <https://www.lpbwa.org.au/Home.aspx>
2. Click the 'Login Now' button, as highlighted in red below to login to the website. Enter your username and password (these are your usual login details used during the renewal period).
If you have forgotten your username or password please follow these instructions.

3. Once successfully logged in the 'Login Now' button will change to display your Practitioner/CPDMS ID (highlighted in green below) and name. You will also now see an 'Online Portal' button, as highlighted in red below, click on this.

4. You will be taken to the Portal area which lists the online services available as shown below, click on the 'View your CPD points dashboard' link as highlighted in the image below (some of the links may differ for you).

5. Your CPD points dashboard, similar to the screen below will be displayed. Your CPDMS/Practitioner ID is shown at the top of the page, this is your unique ID number which CPD providers will request.

The summary boxes at the top of screen show totals and points by category. The page also shows your CPD Events and Publications for the current year, as well as a historical listing of these.
