It is the responsibility of the provider of the activity to advise participants of points allocation. Should the application be made after the event, the points allocation by the Legal Practice Board will apply. Should approval not be granted, or granted for a different allocation of points between competency areas than in the application, the provider is responsible to advise participants of the correct number and allocation of points to apply towards their requirements for CPD compliance.

Definitions

Approved CPD Activity:

On the application of a person who is not, or a body or group of persons that is not, an approved QA Provider of CPD, the Legal Practice Board may approve a professional development activity provided, or to be provided, by the applicant as an approved CPD activity. When approving an activity under this rule, the Board is to determine the number of CPD points and the allocation of points to competency areas for the activity.

1-2 Hour Activity:

A CPD Activity that takes place within 2 hours. A practitioner may earn CPD points for completing a minimum of 30 minutes of an approved CPD activity, meaning this approval is required for an activity no shorter than 30 minutes and no longer than 2 hours in duration.

Half Day Activity

A CPD Activity that is longer than 2 hours but no longer than 4 hours in duration.

Activity Longer than Half Day

A CPD Activity that is longer than 4 hours in duration. For events that comprise one or more interactive activities that proceed for more than 4 hours, such as a conference or course, this is the appropriate activity. The maximum number of CPD points that can be earned from this an event is 6 points.

Community Group or small non-commercial member organisation:

A group or organisation that:

- a) is a community based not-for-profit organisation and/or a charity; and
- b) provides CPD for its members, where the organisation is predominantly run by volunteers with limited or no paid support, and where CPD is provided at a minimal cost.

Section E – Required Information

In considering an application for approval of a CPD Activity, the Legal Practice Board requires information addressing the criteria set out below. Each item of the criteria should be addressed in a supporting statement accompanying this application form, and supported by relevant documentation.

- a) The basis on which the professional development activity provides continuing professional development in a competency area or competency areas relevant to the legal profession;
- b) Information with regard to the persons proposed to undertake the training and details of their qualifications as a result of practical or academic experience, in the subject or subjects covered;
- c) The basis on which a record of attendance will be maintained in a format that can be made available to the Legal Practice Board on request, if required; and
- d) Information regarding the person, body or group of persons who understands the relevant competency area or areas and has the ability to allocate the CPD point or points to the appropriate area or areas.

Section F – Proposed Points Allocation

Please advise how many points should be allocated to which competency area or areas, providing information regarding the allocation, in your supporting statement or documentation.

For further information regarding the number of points and relevant competency areas, refer to Rules 13D and 13F of the Legal Profession Rules 2009. Particularly note that the maximum number of CPD points that can be earned from attending a conference, course or other event comprising one or more interactive activities is 6.
